MY AND QUINN EMANUEL’S QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

13. I lead the Consumer Plaintiffs’ case along with my Interim Co-Lead Consumer Class Counsel Shana E. Scarlett of Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP. Below, I provide biographies summarizing some of my and Quinn Emanuel’s relevant experience. Ms. Scarlett provides biographies summarizing her and Hagens Berman’s relevant experience in her accompanying declaration contemporaneously filed with Consumer Plaintiffs’ Motion for Class Certification and Appointment of Class Counsel.

The Quinn Emanuel Team in This Case.

14. Kevin Y. Teruya: I am a partner in Quinn Emanuel’s Los Angeles office and a 1998 graduate of Harvard Law School. My practice focuses primarily on antitrust and unfair competition litigation. I was named a “Top Antitrust Lawyer” in California by the Daily Journal in 2022, have been recognized as a “Super Lawyer” by Southern California Super Lawyer for years, and am one of

1 the 500 leading plaintiff financial lawyers according to Lawdragon. I have served as an officer of both 2 the Executive Committee of the Antitrust & Unfair Competition Law Section of the State Bar of 3 California, and of the Executive Committee of the Antitrust Section of the Los Angeles County Bar 4 Association, and as a member of the editorial board for the annual “California Antitrust and Unfair 5 Competition Law” treatise. I am originally from Hawaii and previously served as a law clerk to the 6 Honorable Herbert Y.C. Choy of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, who was 7 the first Asian American to serve as a federal judge.

8 15. Some of my representative experiences include:

- 9 a. Rambus Inc. v. Micron Technology Inc. et al*, Case No. CGC-04-431105
 10 (Cal. Super. Ct.): I served as part of the trial team for defendant Micron 11 Technology, Inc. in an antitrust action involving an alleged conspiracy to 12 boycott certain computer memory chips. Plaintiff Rambus sought $4 billion— 13 trebled to $12 billion—from Micron. After a three-month trial, the jury 14 rejected Rambus’ claims, awarding no damages.
- 15 b. Polyurethane Foam Antitrust Litig.*, Case No. 10-md-02196 (N.D. Ohio): I 16 served as part of a lead counsel team that represented a class of direct 17 purchaser plaintiffs in an antitrust action involving a price-fixing conspiracy 18 between over two dozen defendants in the polyurethane foam industry. In that 19 case, which I helped lead day-to-day, the court certified a nationwide class of 20 direct purchasers, denied the defendants’ multiple summary judgment motions, 21 and brought the case within two weeks of trial after ruling on all major pretrial 22 issues. Through my and my team’s efforts, the class obtained more than $430 23 million in settlements.
- 24 c. Complete Entertainment Resources LLC v. Live Nation Entertainment, Inc.
 25 et al*, Case No. 2:15-cv-09814 (C.D. Cal.): I was a lead member of the team 26 that represented Songkick, a startup innovator in the live music industry, which 27 brought an antitrust action against Live Nation and Ticketmaster regarding 28 exclusive dealing, tying, and other acts of monopolization in the market for

1 artist presale ticketing services. Through my and the team's efforts, Songkick 2 was the first plaintiff to survive a motion for summary judgment on antitrust 3 claims against Ticketmaster and obtained $110 million in settlement plus the 4 acquisition of its assets (for a confidential sum) just shortly before trial.

5 d. Social Ranger LLC v. Facebook Inc., Case No. 1:14-cv-01525-LPS (D.
 6 Del.): I served as counsel for plaintiff Social Ranger LLC in an antitrust action 7 against Facebook. The plaintiff, a technology company, asserted claims against 8 Facebook for tying and monopolization in the market for virtual currency 9 services on social game networks. The case was resolved shortly before trial in 10 2017.

11 e. FCA US LLC v. Yazaki Corp. et al, Case No. 2:17-cv-14138 (E.D. Mich.): I 12 served as part of a team that represented Fiat Chrysler Automobiles US LLC in 13 a billion-dollar antitrust action against Yazaki Corporation and Yazaki North 14 America, Inc. This action was part of the multi-district litigation (In re 15 Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation) arising from the largest criminal 16 antitrust investigation in U.S. history. The action arose from a long-running 17 global conspiracy by Yazaki and its co-conspirators to fix prices, rig bids, and 18 allocate customers for wire harnesses sold to original equipment manufacturers 19 for automobiles. The matter was resolved after summary judgment briefing in 20 2020.

21 f. Heckman v. Live Nation Entertainment, Inc. et al, Case No. 2:22-cv-00047-
 22 GW (C.D. Cal.): I currently serve as part of a team that represents a putative 23 class of ticket purchasers in an antitrust class action against Live Nation and 24 Ticketmaster. The plaintiffs allege, inter alia, that Live Nation and 25 Ticketmaster violated federal antitrust laws by monopolizing and/or attempting 26 to monopolize the relevant markets for primary and secondary ticketing 27 services for major concert venues, and by restraining competition in those 28

1 markets. The court recently denied Live Nation’s motion to compel arbitration, 2 and the case is currently pending.

3 g. Ashton Woods Holdings L.L.C. et al v. USG Corp. et al, Case No. 4:15-cv-
4 01247-HSG (N.D. Cal.): I was part of the trial team representing homebuilder 5 plaintiffs against drywall manufacturers. Plaintiffs alleged that the defendants 6 conspired to fix the prices of drywall in the United States and sought damages 7 (before trebling) in excess of $200 million. This action was part of multi-8 district litigation (In re: Domestic Drywall Antitrust Litigation) then-pending 9 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania that 10 was remanded back to the Northern District of California for trial. The case 11 resolved confidentially shortly before trial.

12 h. Jones et al v. PGA Tour, Inc., Case No. 5:22-cv-04486-BLF (N.D. Cal.): I 13 served as a member of the team pursuing antitrust claims against the PGA 14 Tour on behalf of LIV Golf, Inc. and certain professional golfers regarding the 15 PGA Tour’s monopsonization of the market for the services of professional 16 golfers for elite events and its monopolization of the market of the promotion 17 of elite professional golf events. The case resolved during discovery.

18 i. Intuit Inc. et al v. Visa Inc. et al, Case No. 1:21-cv-01175-MKB (E.D.N.Y.):
19 I serve as part of the team pursuing treble damages antitrust claims against 20 Visa and MasterCard based on their use of anti-competitive agreements which 21 limit competition and fix the interchange fees paid by merchants and payment 22 processors. The case is currently pending.

23 j. In re: German Automotive Manufacturers Antitrust Litig., Case No. 3:17- 24 md-02796-CRB (N.D. Cal.): I served as defense counsel for Daimler AG and 25 Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC in multi-district, antitrust class-action litigation 26 involving claims that major German auto manufacturers conspired to reduce 27 innovation in their passenger vehicles throughout the world. The court 28

1 dismissed—with prejudice—the putative consumer and auto dealers classes’ 2 claims.

3 k. In re Cathode Ray Tube Antitrust Litig., Case No. 07-cv-05944-JST (N.D.
 4 Cal.): I served as part of the team that defended Mitsubishi Electric 5 Corporation and two of its U.S. subsidiaries in multiple antitrust class and 6 individual actions involving allegations of an international price-fixing 7 conspiracy spanning more than a decade in the multi-billion dollar market for 8 cathode ray tubes.

9 l. Clemmy’s LLC v. Nestlé USA, Inc. and Nestlé Dreyer’s Ice Cream Company, 10 Inc., Case No. BC500811 (Los Angeles Super. Ct.): I co-led the defense of 11 Nestlé USA, Inc. and Nestlé Dreyer’s Ice Cream Company in an antitrust 12 action under the California Cartwright Act involving an alleged conspiracy to 13 exclude competition in a claimed market for “better for you” ice cream. The 14 court granted Nestlé’s motion for summary judgment, dismissing the plaintiff’s 15 antitrust claim.

16 m. Calabasas Luxury Motorcars, Inc. v. General Motors LLC et al, Case No.
 17 2:21-cv-09566-TJH (C.D. Cal.): I co-lead the team defending General Motors 18 LLC in a putative class action asserting antitrust and unfair competition claims 19 arising out of a supposed conspiracy between GM LLC and General Motors 20 Financial (General Motors’ leasing subsidiary) regarding the automobile lease 21 pay-off process. The court granted GM LLC’s motion to dismiss and dismissed 22 plaintiff’s claims without prejudice.

23 16. Manisha M. Sheth: Ms. Sheth is a partner in Quinn Emanuel’s New York office and 24 also serves as co-chair of the firm’s Government and Regulatory Litigation and Sexual Harassment 25 and Employment Discrimination practices. She is a seasoned trial lawyer with over 24 years of 17 17. Adam B. Wolfson: Mr. Wolfson is a partner in Quinn Emanuel's San Francisco and 18 Los Angeles offices, who represents both plaintiffs and defendants in antitrust, class-action, and other 19 litigation. Mr. Wolfson was named an "MVP" in Class Actions by Law360 in 2022 and a "Rising 20 Star" in the same category in 2019. Benchmark Litigation recognized him as a 2023 Future Star, and 21 he has been listed among the top 500 plaintiffs' financial lawyers in the nation by Lawdragon every 22 year since 2019, as well as a Recommended Lawyer in Antitrust repeatedly by Legal 500 USA. He 23 recently tried three jury trials and one bench trial in 14 months, winning each of his jury trials (and is 24 currently in post-hearing briefing in his bench trial). Some of Mr. Wolfson's representative 25 experiences include:

- 26 a. Health Republic Insurance Co. v. United States, Case No. 1:16-cv-00259
27 (Fed. Cl.): Mr. Wolfson served as part of the lead counsel team that 28 represented a certified class of health insurers seeking recovery from the

1 federal government based on the government's failure to make risk corridor
 2 payments in violation of Section 1342 of the Affordable Care Act. Class 3 members ultimately recovered $3.7 billion after Mr. Wolfson and the Quinn 4 Emanuel team filed the first case on these issues in the nation, setting forth the 5 core legal and factual theory that the Supreme Court ultimately blessed as 6 correct in mid-2020.

7 b. In re: 3M Combat Arms Earplug Products Liability Litig., Case No. 3:19- 8 md-2885 (N.D. Fla.): Mr. Wolfson serves on the Executive Committee in this 9 multi-district litigation involving product liability and other claims on behalf of 10 over 250,000 military veterans who suffered hearing loss and other injuries as 11 a result of defective earplugs. Notably, during the bellwether trial process in 12 that mass tort, he won two "defense pick" trials (i.e., trials for plaintiffs the 13 defendants selected, presumably because they thought those plaintiffs' claims 14 were weak/unwinnable). As a result of Mr. Wolfson's and our co-counsel's 15 efforts, the plaintiffs recently secured a $6.01 billion settlement.

16 c. In re Valve Antitrust Litig., Case No. 2:21-cv-00563-JCC (W.D. Wash.):
 17 Mr. Wolfson currently serves as co-lead counsel in this antitrust class action 18 alleging that Valve Corporation, the creator of the PC desktop gaming 19 platform, Steam, has illegally applied platform most-favored nations policies 20 to artificially maintain monopoly power and keep its commission prices at 21 supracompetitive levels. After an initial dismissal without prejudice, Mr.
 22 Wolfson helped lead drafting of an amended complaint that made clear to the 23 court why plaintiffs' claims are plausible; the case is now in the midst of fact 24 discovery.

25 d. In re Polyurethane Foam Antitrust Litig., Case No. 10-md-02196 (N.D.
 26 Ohio): Mr. Wolfson served as part of a lead counsel team that represented a 27 class of direct purchaser plaintiffs in an antitrust action involving a price-fixing 28 conspiracy between over two dozen defendants in the polyurethane foam

1 industry. In that case, which Mr. Wolfson helped lead day-to-day from the 2 complaint forward, the court certified a nationwide class of direct purchasers, 3 denied the defendants' multiple summary judgment motions, and brought the 4 case within two weeks of trial after ruling on all major pretrial issues. Through 5 Mr. Wolfson's and the team's effort, the class obtained more than $430
 6 million in settlements.

7 e. AliveCor, Inc. v. Apple Inc., Case No. 4:21-cv-03958-JSW (N.D. Cal.): Mr.
 8 Wolfson is lead counsel in this case alleging that, after copying the plaintiff's 9 groundbreaking heart health technology on the Apple Watch, Apple 10 anticompetitively excluded both the plaintiff and all other heart rhythm 11 analysis app providers from the relevant markets. The parties are awaiting 12 summary judgment rulings, and the case is scheduled to go to trial in February 13 2024.

14 f. Complete Entertainment Resources LLC v. Live Nation Entertainment, Inc.
 15 et al, Case No. 2:15-cv-09814 (C.D. Cal.): Mr. Wolfson served as part of a 16 team that represented Songkick, a startup innovator in the live music industry, 17 which brought an antitrust action against Live Nation and Ticketmaster 18 regarding exclusive dealing, tying, and other acts of monopolization in the 19 market for artist presale ticketing services. Through Mr. Wolfson's and the 20 team's efforts, Songkick was the first plaintiff to survive a motion for 21 summary judgment on antitrust claims against Ticketmaster and obtained $110 22 million in settlement plus the acquisition of its assets (for a confidential sum) 23 just shortly before trial.

24 g. Heckman v. Live Nation Entertainment, Inc. et al, Case No. 2:22-cv-00047-
 25 GW (C.D. Cal.): I currently serve as part of a team that represents a putative 26 class of ticket purchasers in an antitrust class action against Live Nation and 27 Ticketmaster. The plaintiffs allege, inter alia, that Live Nation and 28 Ticketmaster violated federal antitrust laws by monopolizing and/or attempting

1 to monopolize the relevant markets for primary and secondary ticketing
 2 services for major concert venues, and by restraining competition in those 3 markets. The court recently denied Live Nation's motion to compel arbitration, 4 and the case is currently pending.

5 h. Ashton Woods Holdings L.L.C. et al v. USG Corp. et al, Case No. 4:15-cv-
 6 01247-HSG (N.D. Cal.): Mr. Wolfson served as part of the trial team 7 representing homebuilder plaintiffs against drywall manufacturers. Plaintiffs 8 alleged that the defendants conspired to fix the prices of drywall in the United 9 States and sought damages (before trebling) in excess of $200 million. This 10 action was part of multi-district litigation (In re: Domestic Drywall Antitrust 11 Litigation) then-pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern 12 District of Pennsylvania that was remanded back to the Northern District of 13 California for trial. The case resolved confidentially shortly before trial.

14 i. Mackmin et al v. Visa Inc. et al, Case No. 1:11-cv-01831 (D.D.C.): Mr.
 15 Wolfson currently serves as co-lead interim class counsel for consumers in an 16 antitrust action seeking remuneration for artificially-inflated, supra-competitive 17 surcharges at bank-owned ATMs throughout the country. The plaintiffs 18 recently reached a settlement with three of the bank defendants in that case for 19 $66.7 million, and the court recently granted class certification against the 20 remaining defendants, which the D.C. Circuit affirmed on appeal. The 21 plaintiffs continue to pursue claims against the remaining defendants for more 22 than $1 billion, and Mr. Wolfson leads that case day-to-day.

23 j. In re German Automotive Manufacturers Antitrust Litigation, Case No.
 24 3:17-md-02796-CRB (N.D. Cal.): Mr. Wolfson served as defense counsel for 25 Daimler AG and Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC in multi-district, antitrust class-26 action litigation involving claims that major German auto manufacturers 27 conspired to reduce innovation in their passenger vehicles throughout the 28 world. Based on arguments Mr. Wolfson developed and briefed, the court dismissed with prejudice the putative consumer and auto dealers classes' claims, a decision the Ninth Circuit upheld on appeal and for which the Supreme Court denied certiorari.

k. Transweb, LLC v. 3M Innovative Properties Company et al*, Case No. 2:10-cv-04413-FSH (D.N.J.): Mr. Wolfson served as part of the trial team that represented plaintiff Transweb, LLC in an antitrust and patent dispute. The plaintiff prevailed at trial and obtained a rare Walker Process antitrust fraud verdict, including $26 million in antitrust damages.

l. Intuit Inc. et al v. Visa Inc. et al*, Case No. 1:21-cv-01175-MKB (E.D.N.Y.): Mr. Wolfson, along with Mr. Teruya, leads a team pursuing treble damages antitrust claims against Visa and MasterCard based on their use of anti-competitive agreements which limit competition and fix the interchange fees paid by merchants and payment processors. The case is currently pending.

18. Scott L. Watson: Mr. Watson is a partner in Quinn Emanuel's Los Angeles office. He has litigated some of the largest intellectual property disputes in history, as well as tort claims, securities and corporate fraud claims, antitrust actions, class actions and large contractual disputes. - b. Qualcomm Inc. v. Apple Inc.*, Case No. 3:17-cv-1375-DMS-MDD (S.D. Cal.): Mr. Watson was trial counsel for Qualcomm in a patent case against Apple, alleging the iPhone infringed three Qualcomm patents. The jury found all of Qualcomm’s at-issue patents to be valid, that Apple infringed them, and awarded $31 million in damages—the full amount sought by Qualcomm.
- c. Apple v. Qualcomm*, Case No. 3:17-cv-00108-GPC (S.D. Cal.): Mr. Watson represented Qualcomm in multi-billion dollar antitrust litigation adverse to Apple, relating to Qualcomm’s patent licensing model. Qualcomm and Apple reached a global settlement just after opening statements.
- d. Apple Inc. v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd.*, Case No. 12-cv-0630-LHK (N.D. Cal.): Mr. Watson was part of the team that defeated Apple’s motion for a preliminary injunction on the Galaxy Nexus smartphone, including at the Federal Circuit, as part of global litigation between Apple and Samsung. He led Samsung’s causation and damages strategy in the second Apple-Samsung trial, resulting in a damages award of less than 5.5% of the amount Apple sought.
- e. Vertellus Holdings LLC v. W.R. Grace & Co. -Conn.*, Case No. Civil SAG-18-3298 (D. Md.): Mr. Watson was lead counsel for plaintiff Vertellus against W.R. Grace in a case asserting trade secret theft and breach of contract claims. Vertellus defeated Grace’s counterclaims at summary judgment and the case settled shortly before trial.

19. Michelle R. Schmit: Ms. Schmit is a partner in Quinn Emanuel’s Chicago office. She regularly represents litigants in antitrust, class-action, and data privacy litigation. Ms. Schmit has been ranked by Best Lawyers in America for Commercial Litigation for each of the past three years, and recognized by Best Lawyers in America as one to watch, “Women in the Law,” in 2022. - a. Apple v. Qualcomm*, Case No. 3:17-cv-00108-GPC (S.D. Cal.): Ms. Schmit represented Qualcomm in multi-billion dollar antitrust litigation adverse to Apple, relating to Qualcomm's patent licensing model. Qualcomm and Apple reached a global settlement just after opening statements.

- b. Harris v. comScore, Inc., Case No. 1:11-cv-05807 (N.D. Ill.): Ms. Schmit represented comScore in a data privacy class action lawsuit, in what was, at the time, reported to be the largest class ever certified under federal electronic privacy laws. The case favorably settled following certification of the class.
- c. Martin et al v. KCBX Terminals Company et al., Case No. 1:13-cv-08376 (N.D. Ill.): Ms. Schmit successfully defended KCBX against three class actions brought by nearby residents relating to alleged air pollution at a petroleum coke facility, leading the case to a favorable settlement.
- d. Storey et al. v. Attends Healthcare Products, Inc., Case No. 15-13577 (E.D. Mi.): Ms. Schmit prevailed in her representation of Attends in a product liability class action case, achieving dismissal of the case following seriatim motions to dismiss.

20. Claire D. Hausman: Ms. Hausman, an of counsel in Quinn Emanuel's Los Angeles office, has represented multiple plaintiffs in complex antitrust litigations, including two MDLs. Ms. Hausman has litigated in MDLs and large consolidated state and federal actions throughout her career, including in antitrust, structured finance, and products liability cases. Some of Ms. Hausman's representative experiences include: FCA US LLC v. Yazaki Corp. et al, Case No. 2:17-cv-14138 (E.D. Mich.); *Ashton Woods Holdings L.L.C. et al v. Cal.); and Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. DB Structured Products Inc., Case No. 3:11-cv-30039 (D. Mass.).

21. My partners and I are supported by a team of associates and other legal professionals in this case who regularly handle extraordinarily complex and high-stakes litigation disputes. For example, associate Brantley I. Pepperman is a fifth-year associate in Quinn Emanuel’s Los Angeles office and specializes in antitrust and unfair competition matters. Mr. Pepperman has deep knowledge of the factual and legal issues in this case, having worked primarily on this litigation for nearly three years, including prior to its filing. Mr. Pepperman has also litigated a number of antitrust matters, including: FCA US LLC v. Yazaki Corp. et al, Case No. 2:17-cv-14138 (E.D. Mich.); Ashton Woods Holdings L.L.C. et al v. USG Corp. et al, Case No. 4:15-cv-01247-HSG (N.D. Cal.); Mackmin et al v. Visa Inc. et al, Case No. 1:11-cv-01831 (D.D.C.); and *Calabasas Luxury Motorcars, Inc. v. Mr. Pepperman previously served as a law clerk to the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

22. The Quinn Emanuel team also includes junior associates: Richard Jagdishwar Millett, who clerked for the Court and the Honorable Milan D. Smith, Jr., of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; Andrew Mather, who prior to law school served as a principal software architect and data privacy analyst on transformative big data projects for a major Fortune 500 company; and Krishna Shah, who is currently pursuing Big Tech-related antitrust claims in this District.

Quinn Emanuel’s Unparalleled Antitrust and Class Action Experience

23. Quinn Emanuel is the world’s largest law firm devoted solely to business litigation, with over 1000 attorneys in 33 offices spanning 11 countries and 4 continents. Among other accolades, Quinn Emanuel has been named a “litigation powerhouse” by The American Lawyer, a “global force in litigation” by The Wall Street Journal, and one of “The Four Firms that GCs Fear The Most” by BTI Consulting Group (eleven times). Quinn Emanuel’s Antitrust and Competition practice has been listed in Global Competition Review’s GCR100 2023 rankings. The firm has not only been

1 ranked within the top 25 “Global Elite” law firms, but also within the top 10 ranking of the world’s 10 2 best private litigation firms. Recently, the Global Competition Review awarded Quinn Emanuel 3 “Litigation of the Year—Cartel Defense” for the firm’s work for on the German Automotive 4 Manufacturers Antitrust Multidistrict Litigation. Chambers USA 2023 ranked the firm’s nationwide
 5 plaintiff antitrust practice “Band 1,” and we have received several repeat awards for the practice areas 6 at issue in this case, including (among others) being named: one of the “Top 20 Trial Law Firms” in 7 2023 by Benchmark Litigation USA, “Antitrust Litigation Department of the Year” by The Recorder, 8 and “Class Action Group of the Year” by Law360.

9 24. As is particularly relevant to this case, Quinn Emanuel is a leader in both antitrust 10 litigation and class-action litigation, including, in particular, antitrust class-action litigation like this.
 11 In connection with these cases, Quinn Emanuel has obtained billions of dollars in settlements and trial 12 verdicts for hundreds of thousands of plaintiffs over the years.

13 25. I respectfully submit that Quinn Emanuel’s extraordinary success in antitrust and class-14 action litigation on behalf of both plaintiffs and defendants, along with its demonstrated commitment 15 to fully utilizing the talents of its female and diverse attorneys, makes Quinn Emanuel well-qualified 16 to co-lead the Consumer Class in this case. Some of Quinn Emanuel’s significant successes are further 17 described below.

18 Quinn Emanuel’s Success On Behalf of Antitrust Plaintiffs.

19 26. When representing antitrust plaintiffs, Quinn Emanuel has recovered billions of dollars 20 in both class actions and representations of plaintiffs in private litigation and “opt-out” cases. In 21 addition to the cases identified above, below is a representative sample of some of Quinn Emanuel’s 22 other recent representations and successes on behalf of antitrust plaintiffs:

- 23 a. In re: Credit Default Swaps Antitrust Litig., Case No. 13-md-02476
 24 (S.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel acted as one of two co-lead class counsel in this 25 multi-district litigation, in which the plaintiffs alleged the defendants entered 26 into a conspiracy to shut down and not do business with a rival credit default 27 swaps (“CDS”) trading platform, which inflated the spread on CDS products.
 28 In this role, which involved crafting the initial complaints, conducting discovery, and moving for class certification, Quinn Emanuel obtained over $1.87 billion in settlements from the defendants, plus injunctive relief.

- b. Alaska Electrical Pension Fund v. Bank of America N.A., Case No. 14-cv-7126-JMF (S.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel served as co-lead class counsel for a class of investors asserting antitrust claims against large investment banks and their interest rate swaps broker-dealer. The court gave final approval to settlements in excess of $500 million, described the case as “the most complicated” it had ever seen, and observed that it could “not really imagine” how much more complicated “it would have been if I didn’t have counsel who had done as admirable a job in briefing it and arguing it” as Quinn Emanuel.
- c. In re SSA Bonds Antitrust Litig., Case No. 1:16-cv-03711-ER (S.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel was appointed to serve as co-lead class counsel in this antitrust action alleging that certain banks conspired to fix the prices of SSA bonds. The class secured settlements totaling $95.5 million, and final approval of the settlement is pending.
- d. In Re: Commodity Exchange, Inc., Gold Futures and Options Trading Litig., Case No. 1:14-md-02548 (S.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel was appointed lead counsel, progressed past a motion to dismiss, and secured settlements worth $60 million in this antitrust class action alleging manipulation of the “London PM Gold Fix” and the price of gold derivatives worldwide.
- e. AliveCor, Inc. v. Apple Inc., Case No. 21-cv-03958-JSW (N.D. Cal.): Quinn Emanuel represents AliveCor, a heart health company, in litigation against Apple related to various anticompetitive practices surrounding the Apple Watch. The parties are awaiting summary judgment rulings, and the case is scheduled to go to trial in February 2024.
- f. In re Interest Rate Swaps Antitrust Litig., Case No. 16-md-02704-JPO (S.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel was appointed co-lead class counsel in this class action asserting antitrust claims against financial institutions based on their

1 refusal to open up interest rate swaps to exchange trading. The class has so far 2 secured $25 million in settlements, and Plaintiffs' motion for class 3 certification remains pending.

4 g. In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust 5 Litig., Case No. 05-md-1720-JG (E.D.N.Y.): Quinn Emanuel represented, 6 among others, The Home Depot as opt-out counsel in this multi-district 7 litigation, where the plaintiffs allege that Visa, Mastercard, and several banks 8 established anticompetitive rules and prices for interchange fees in the credit 9 and debit card markets. Quinn Emanuel successfully appealed the entry of a 10 2012 settlement that would have waived all merchants' future claims against 11 the defendants, even though the merchants ostensibly had no ability to object 12 to the settlement waiving those rights.

13 h. Edmar Financial Company, LLC et al v. Currenex, Inc. et al., 1:21-cv-
 14 06598-LAK (S.D.N.Y.): following an extensive pre-complaint investigation, 15 Quinn Emanuel filed an antitrust class action against Currenex, Goldman 16 Sachs, and several other major financial companies alleging a conspiracy to 17 grant certain defendants special privileges on Currenex's foreign exchange 18 platform. In May, 2023, the court largely denied defendants' motions to 19 dismiss.

20 27. Quinn Emanuel has also litigated antitrust claims against Facebook. In 2014, a Quinn 21 Emanuel team—including myself—filed suit against Facebook on behalf of plaintiff Social Ranger 22 LLC. See Social Ranger LLC v. Facebook Inc., Case No. 1:14-cv-01525-LPS (D. Del.), Dkt. 1. In that 23 case, Social Ranger—a software company that offered virtual currency services—alleged that 24 Facebook used its dominance to monopolize the market for virtual currency services on social game 25 networks. During the course of the Social Ranger case, Quinn Emanuel and its co-counsel were able 26 to compel the deposition of Facebook Chief Executive Officer Mark Zuckerberg. See Social Ranger, 27 Dkt. 206. The case was ultimately resolved shortly before trial in 2017.

1 Quinn Emanuel’s Success on Behalf of Antitrust Defendants.

2 28. Unlike many plaintiffs’ firms, Quinn Emanuel also regularly represents defendants in 3 antitrust and class-action litigation, which provides Quinn Emanuel with unique experience and 4 expertise. On the defense side, Quinn Emanuel has achieved victories for companies—in a range of 5 industries—accused of antitrust and competition law violations. We have won dismissals by motion, 6 and we have negotiated excellent settlements for our clients, including several settlements not 7 requiring any monetary payment.

8 29. But Quinn Emanuel is also a firm with the genuine ability to take antitrust cases to trial, 9 and it has done so with frequent success. For example, Quinn Emanuel led the trial defense team—of 10 which I was a leading member—for defendant Micron Technology, Inc. in an antitrust action 11 involving an alleged conspiracy to boycott certain computer memory chips. See Rambus Inc. v.
12 Micron Technology Inc. et al, Case No. CGC-04-431105 (Cal. Super. Ct.). Plaintiff Rambus sought $4
13 billion—trebled to $12 billion—from Micron. After a three-month trial, the jury rejected Rambus’ 14 claims and awarded no damages.

15 30. Some of Quinn Emanuel’s other successes representing antitrust defendants include:

- 16 a. In re: German Automotive Manufacturers Antitrust Litig., Case No. 3:17-
17 md-02796-CRB (N.D. Cal.): Quinn Emanuel was defense counsel for Daimler 18 AG and Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC in multi-district, antitrust class-action 19 litigation involving claims that major German auto manufacturers conspired to 20 reduce innovation in their passenger vehicles throughout the world. The Court 21 in 2020 dismissed—with prejudice—the putative consumer and auto dealers 22 classes’ claims, a decision that was affirmed by the Ninth Circuit in 2021.
- 23 b. In re Flash Memory Antitrust Litig., Case No. 4:07-cv-00086-SBA (N.D.
24 Cal.): Quinn Emanuel defended Samsung in two price-fixing class actions, 25 brought by direct and indirect purchasers of NAND flash memory. Although 26 classes had been certified in similar cases, Quinn Emanuel successfully 27 defeated class certification motions in both actions.

- c. In re: January 2021 Short Squeeze Trading Litig., Case No. 21-2989-md-CMA (S.D. Fla.): Quinn Emanuel represented defendant Citadel, LLC in multidistrict litigation brought by individual investors who alleged Citadel colluded with a brokerage firm to restrict trading in “meme stocks.” Quinn Emanuel obtained a dismissal—with prejudice—of all claims at the pleading stage.
- d. Palivos et al v. Federation Internationale Football Association et al, Case No. 2:15-cv-01721-JCM (D. Nev.): Quinn Emanuel represented defendant FIFA in this antitrust class action that alleged FIFA was engaged in a conspiracy regarding the sale of hospitality packages to the 2014 World Cup. Plaintiffs sought hundreds of millions of dollars. Quinn Emanuel obtained dismissal with prejudice at the pleading stage.
- e. Pro Music Rights, LLC v. Apple Inc. et al, Case No. 3:20-cv-00309-JAM (D. Conn.): Quinn Emanuel secured the dismissal of all claims against defendant SoundCloud in this antitrust action alleging that SoundCloud and other companies conspired to drive the plaintiff out of business by refusing to license any of the plaintiff’s works. Quinn Emanuel obtained a stay of discovery pending a motion to dismiss, and the court granted SoundCloud’s motion to dismiss, instructing the plaintiff to file an amended complaint only if it had “good faith grounds” to do so. The court dismissed the plaintiff’s case after the plaintiff failed to file an amended complaint.
- f. Golden Boy Promotions LLC et al v. Alan Haymon et al, Case No. 2:15-cv-03378-JFW (C.D. Cal.): Quinn Emanuel defended Haymon Sports—a prominent boxing management company—in a $300 million antitrust lawsuit filed by boxing promotion companies. The plaintiffs alleged that Haymon attempted to monopolize the market for Championship-Caliber Boxers through a “tie-out” and a series of exclusive contracts. Quinn Emanuel obtained summary judgment on the plaintiffs’ claims.

g. Basic Your Best Buy, Inc., v. DirecTV, Inc., Case No. BC467034 (Cal. Super. Ct.): Quinn Emanuel defended DirecTV in this $83.7 million antitrust lawsuit. The plaintiff, a terminated retailer, asserted California Cartwright Act Claims based on DirecTV’s restrictions on its retailers. Quinn Emanuel prevailed in the trial court, obtaining summary judgment. The California Court of Appeal affirmed the trial court’s grant of summary judgment.

h. Novation Ventures, LLC v. The J.G. Wentworth Company, LLC et al, Case No. 2:15-cv-00954 (C.D. Cal.): Quinn Emanuel defended J.G. Wentworth in this antitrust case where the plaintiff, a competitor in the structured settlement market, challenged J.G. Wentworth’s acquisition of Peach Holdings. The plaintiff also alleged that J.G. Wentworth’s online advertising practices were themselves anticompetitive. Quinn Emanuel obtained dismissal of the plaintiff’s claims with prejudice. The Ninth Circuit subsequently affirmed the district court’s dismissal of the plaintiff’s claims.

31. Quinn Emanuel’s “both sides of the v.” practice provides what I believe are unique insights into both the plaintiffs’ and defendants’ bar, and benefits our clients no matter on which side of a dispute they find themselves.

MY AND QUINN EMANUEL’S EFFORTS FOR THE CONSUMER CLASS

32. To date, I, the Quinn Emanuel team supporting me, and our co-counsel at Hagens Berman have invested tremendous time, resources, and efforts on the Consumer Class’s behalf.

33. I first began investigating possible antitrust claims against Facebook in early 2019. As the first step of my investigation, I personally met with and consulted industry expert Dina Srinivasan, an antitrust and data privacy academic, in February 2019. Ms. Srinivasan is the author of The Antitrust Case Against Facebook: A Monopolist’s Journey Towards Pervasive Surveillance In Spite of Consumers’ Preference for Privacy, 16:1 Berkeley Bus. L. J. 39 (2019).

34. In the months that followed, I, and, later, other Quinn Emanuel attorneys continued to investigate Facebook’s anticompetitive conduct, carefully reviewing the reports of various governmental tribunals. My and Quinn Emanuel’s investigation included an expansive review of other

1 materials, including news articles, industry reports, academic and economic literature, and documents 2 that Facebook produced in response to governmental inquiries.

3 35. Quinn Emanuel and I also undertook an extensive legal analysis of the possible 4 antitrust claims presented by Facebook's misconduct. These discussions centered on, inter alia, 5 defining the relevant markets and refining the theories for how Facebook's data collection and use 6 practices: (a) constituted anticompetitive conduct under the antitrust laws; and (b) harmed consumers.

7 36. Our work led to Quinn Emanuel filing the first-of-its-kind antitrust complaint against 8 Facebook on December 3, 2020. See Klein et al. v. Meta Platforms, Inc., Case No. 3:20-cv-08570-JD 9 (N.D. Cal.), Dkt 1.

10 37. On March 18, 2021, the prior district judge presiding over this action appointed my 11 then-partner Stephen A. Swedlow, and Ms. Scarlett of Hagens Berman, as Interim Co-Lead Consumer 12 Class Counsel. See Dkt. 73.

13 38. On February 21, 2023, the Court confirmed Ms. Scarlett's appointment and appointed 14 me as Interim Co-Lead Consumer Class Counsel following Mr. Swedlow's departure. See Dkt. 456.

15 39. I, Ms. Scarlett, and our respective firms have vigorously prosecuted this case and 16 pushed the Consumer Class's claims forward. For example, we have successfully briefed, argued, and 17 defeated Facebook's motion to dismiss; retained and coordinated with well-qualified experts who 18 submit detailed expert reports demonstrating the appropriateness of class treatment for the Consumer 19 Class's claims; coordinated with the named Consumer Plaintiffs to gather and produce materials in 20 response to Facebook's voluminous discovery requests and prepare them for deposition; obtained 21 extensive discovery from Facebook and non-parties, including millions of pages of documents and 22 more than 80 depositions; and performed extensive legal and factual analyses in connection with 23 Consumer Plaintiffs' motion for class certification.

24 40. If appointed as Co-Lead Consumer Class Counsel, I will continue to zealously and 25 cooperatively litigate this case with Ms. Scarlett. Together, Ms. Scarlett and I—and our respective 26 firms—will continue to fairly and adequately safeguard the Consumer Class's interests. We will also 27 bring our respective firms' resources to bear in service to the Consumer Class.

28

COMMITMENT TO FEE, TIME, AND COST CONTROLS

41. I and the other Quinn Emanuel attorneys pursuing this case are committed to litigating the Consumer Class's claims as efficiently as possible. Litigating claims efficiently is part and parcel to our success in complex cases like this one.

42. I and the other Quinn Emanuel attorneys pursuing this case are familiar with the Court's expectations regarding attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, and records as to the same in class actions. We have followed—and will continue to follow—the Court's requirements regarding fees, costs, and expenses, which the Court set forth in its February 21, 2023 order. See Dkt. 456 at 3–5.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 15th day of September 2023 in Los Angeles, California.
